UM'S BOLTON WILL GIVE ONE-DAY
THEATER WORKSHOP IN SANDPOINT

MISSOULA--

Randy Bolton, head of the Actor Training Program in the Department of Drama/Dance at the University of Montana, will give a theater workshop at the Sandpoint, Idaho, Community Hall Saturday, Aug. 30. The sessions will start at 9 a.m. and end at 10 p.m.

The focus of the workshop is on releasing the participant's creativity and self expression rather than on producing professional theater.

"The workshop will appeal to all who have a spark of drama in their souls," Bolton says, "to those who work with groups to enlarge social interaction, to those who teach children and to serious drama students."

The workshop is sponsored by the Pend Oreille Arts Council. The fee is $10 for participants and $5 for observers.

Information about reservations and registration for the workshop is available from Joyce Olson, (208)263-3434, or Terry Hayes, (208)263-7128.
